National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Service to Honor Four Fallen Colorado Firefighters

EMMITSBURG, MD. – The 28th Annual National Fallen Firefighters Memorial Service will honor four Colorado firefighters who died in the line of duty in 2008. They will be among the 98 men and 5 women from 36 states remembered at the official national service held at the National Fire Academy in Emmitsburg. Nineteen firefighters who died in previous years will also be honored.

Captain Shane Stewart, age 33, of the Ault-Pierce Fire Protection District died in an apparatus rollover enroute to a medical emergency call on February 23, 2008.

Fire Chief Terry DeVore, age 30, of the Olney Springs Volunteer Fire Department died in a motor vehicle accident due to a bridge collapse in heavy smoke conditions at a wildland fire on April 15, 2008.

Pilot Gert Marais, age 42, of Aero Seat (Colorado State Forest Service Contractor) died in a single engine air tanker crash just after dropping slurry onto the Fort Carson wildland fire on April 15, 2008.

Firefighter John Schwartz, Jr., age 38, Olney Springs Volunteer Fire Department died in a motor vehicle accident due to a bridge collapse in heavy smoke conditions at a wildland fire on April 15, 2008.

The National Fallen Firefighters Foundation (NFFF) and the Department of Homeland Security will sponsor the official national tribute on October 4, 2009. This ceremony marks the beginning of National Fire Prevention Week designated by President Obama to focus national attention on the destruction of property and loss of life caused by fire.

As first responders to all natural and manmade emergencies, fire service personnel are in constant danger. During 2008, 103 firefighters died in the line of duty, making firefighting one of the nation's most dangerous occupations.

More than 5,000 people, including Members of Congress, Administration officials and other dignitaries, members of the fire service, and families and friends of the fallen firefighters will attend the event. Families receive flags flown over the U. S. Capitol and the National Memorial. Honor guard units and fire service personnel from across the U.S. will participate in the National Tribute.

Many fire departments across the country will conduct simultaneous services, lower flags to half-staff, sound sirens at noon, and observe a moment of silent tribute.
